Coffey Makes Impressive Showing by Knocking Out Joe Cox. the Giant Missourian, Who Was Never Even Floored

Copyright, 1917, by the Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World.) IM COFFEY knocked out Joe Cox in three rounds at the Clermon! Rink, Brooklyn, last night, and a big army of conductors and motormen left the building feeling better than they have at any time since before Jim was knocked out by Frank Moran in the Garden.

The Roscommon Giant looked as good as he ever did in the ring. He was as cool as a cucumber, and punched with the force of a triphammer. His judgment of distance champion, meels Edward F. Raywas good as he missed only one punched with the force of a tripbammer. His judgment of distance was good, as he missed only one punch—a sweeping right uppercutduring the battle.

Correy now appears stronger on his feet, his legs having filled out, and no longer have that pipe-stem appearance they had. Moreover, he seems to have forgotten the anag he ran up against when he faced Moran, as he fought with all his old contidence.

Coffey really finished Cox with a right to the pit of the stomach. This terrific wallop doubled Cox up like a kinot and he fell in, trying to clutch Jim. The latter stepped away and then whilpped across a left, followed by a slashing right that sent Cox flat on his back. He looked up at the lights with glinzed eyes. At the count of eight he moved, at nine he was up on one knee and at ten he had reached his feet, but Referee O'Sullivan came to his rescue and escorted him to his corner, although he sleeplip signified his willingness to contibue.

OFFEY took many punches on the jaw, too. Cox, by the way, is no slouch of a hitter. In the old days these wallops would most likely have broken Coffey's alleged glass jaw, but they didn't fears him last night.

last night.

The victory over Cox is no mean victory, as the Missouri giant is reported to have made Jess Willard Jump through the ropes on one occasion. At any rate he was never even knocked down before.

Willie Lewis, who was Cox's chief second, said after the battle:

"Coffey is better than he ever was, he has come back with both feet. He is wonderfully fast for a big man, and 1 wouldn't be surprised if he stopped Fulton. He is a good fighter, Frank Moran's victories over him being only due to the fact that Frank is number."

OFFEY has been faithfully training for two months now. Hilly Gibson, his manager, has been content to let him come back grad-He first matched him with liob Devere, and then Sam Nolan. The first named bout went the ibnit, but the second he won in short order. Gibsor ye he plans now to send him against all comers—Fulton, Morris, Moran and the rest of the big chaps—as he now feels assured that Jim is himself again.

TTON, button, who's got the Garden? Every day the situation changes. Grant Hugh Browne still insists that everything will soon be fixed up for his securing control of the place; Tex Rickard bobs up as a possible lesses of the samphitheatre, and Jimmy Johnston also figures very largely in reported deals for taking over New York's big-gest sporting arena. Meanwhile box-ring is almost at a standstill as far as

WENCK IS LIKELY TO BE REMOVED AS BOXING HEAD TO-DAY

The Evening World is informed on the highest authority that Gov. Whitman will feel called upon to remove Fred A. Wenck as Chairman of the State Athletic Commission when the report of the hearing before Franklin H. Lord is made public to-day. Charges were filed against Wenck with the Governor on the ground of attempted extortion early in January by Harry Polick, Patrick T. Powers and John J. White. Three hearings were held before Mr. Lord, the Governor's personal mony for and against was submitted. Wenck will be exonerated on some of the counts, but the report of Mr. Lord, which was turned over to the Governor yesterday, is unfavorable enough on the whole to force his removal.

Giants' maneger stacked him against the strong hitting Dallas club in a game that meant much to all concerned. It was played for the benefit of the fans at Marlin. In the first inning the Texans got two runs, but even that did not feaze the Brooklyn boy. He settled down and by pitching beautiful ball shut Doc White's team out for the remaining innings. At the finish McGraw says the boy was almost as freel and strong as when he started.

Young Hoyt began his rather unique career at one of the high schools in Brooklyn. He pitched so effectively that semi-pro managers saw him and tried to induce him to join a minor league club. In that way he got his start and was drawn to the attention of Medicare.

Hoyt has a wonderful fast ball and
